SOCIAL MATTERS. Summer Outings of Well-Known People-Personal Mention.

Mrs. Wanamaker left the city early yesterday for Lindenhurst, their country place. The Postmaster General and Miss Wanamaker and some of their friends left town in the after-noon. The Postmaster General and Mrs. Wanamaker will return to the city on Thursday to attend a dinner party on that evening. The two houses—the I street one and Lindenhurst—will be kept open all the summer.

Mrs. G. B. Haycock will entertain the ladies of the G. A. R. sewing circle at her residence. No. 1632 19th street, on Friday at 11 o'clock. This will be the closing meeting of the sewing circle for the season, and therefore will be an occasion of unusual interest.

at a breakfast one morning this week. A number of young ladies and gentlemen who formed a German club this year celebrated the close of the season with a dance at Woodley Inn last evening, chaperoned by Mrs. Hough and Mrs. Outhwaite. The company made the trip in a six-horse omnibus very comfortably, not withstanding the rain storm. The musicians were on hand when they arrived and dancing was enjoyed until midnight. At the inn the company were the guests of Mr. Keenan and every attention possible was shown them, including a substantial supper. The party included besides the chaperones Miss Bryan, Miss Galt, Miss Kauffmann, Miss Guthrie and the Misses Hough, and Messrs. PRESBYTERIAN REVISION. Question Before the Assembly-Position of the Washington Presbytery.

It is probable that the meeting of the general assembly of the Presbyterian Church, which convenes tomorrow at Saratoga, will be one of great historic interest. For the past year the various presbyteries throughout the country was at its highest a delegation of the W.A.L.A. have been considering the question of revision of the confession of faith, and now the entire matter is to come before the highest body in the And Bieber. Miss C. Hirsch, Miss Nettie Cohen, Miss Blanche Lansburg, the Misses Bernheimer, Miss M. Ganz. Miss Ella Behrend, Miss J. Young and Miss H. Kohner; Messrs. M. Nordinger, E. Sommers, S. Weil, A. Weyl, B. Heidenheimer, E. Kohner, F. Richold, H. Munster, G. Solomon, W. Blum, S. Bieber and S. S. Richard.

Mrs. Senator Allen has gone to New York to visit her son, John B. Alien, jr. and daughters, church. While the general assembly has power a committee to formulate the proposed changes. The committee's report will afterward be voted dents. She will go from there to Michigan, on by the presbyteries, after which it will come her native state, to visit her parents. Mr. and before the ensuing general assembly. All this will necessarily take time, and several years in time to accompany her to Walla confession is altered or a shorter creed adopted. will probably elapse before the Westminster The general assembly is not likely to get at ton and Oregon before she returns to this city.

Mr and Mrs. Charles, D. Walcott of L. Droit.

Dr. Roberts of the Lake Forest University. Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Walcott of Le Droit moderator of the last assembly, will be devoted to organization and the election of a moderator, who will spend the rest of the day in appoint ing committees. Friday reports of the various Presbyterian institutions of learning and other routine business will occupy the time of the as-sembly and little or nothing will be done on Saturday. The question of revision will, therefore, be postponed until Monday or Tuesday of

If home and foreign mission, to which two days are usually devoted, take precedence of the revision question it will necessarily be postponed until Wednesday or Thursday.

THE QUESTION OF REVISION. The propriety of making some revision of the confession in order to bring it more in harmony with modern ideas, especially on the questions of election, the salvation of unwhom Christ was never preached, has for some time been discussed, but no decided action was taken until the year 1888, when an overture was presented to the general "The Pennsylvania Railroad Company is willing to meet the people of Washington or willing to meet the people of Washington or a revision of the third chapter (of God's eternal decree) of the company of nal decree) of the confession of faith, with special references to sections 3, 4, 6 and 7." But the assembly was preoccupied with its centennial celebration and did not take much in-terest in the matter. In fact, it came very near being shelved, and it was only by accident, so The man who uttered the foregoing words was President George B. Roberts of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, and he was talksought to interest other presbyteries in the question, and as a result of this 15 of the 211 presbyteries sent up an overture on the ques-

Like the other presbyteries that of Washingthe right to run surface tracks, and unless you | A carefully prepared report was presented to the presbytery by a committee consisting of Rev. T. S. Hamlin, D.D.; Rev. B. F. Bittinger, D.D.; ex-Justice Wm. Strong and Gen. W. N. Custis. Over this report the friends and opponents of revision engaged in a discussion, which lasted for days and finally resulted in its adoption substantially as reported. The committee in its report was careful to state that "we do not desire any sweeping re-vision of the confession of faith, nor such as would eliminate from it the system of doctrine known as Calvinism. • We find in it ances which do not properly belong in such a document and certain unscriptural or extra scriptural statements.
